AURORA POLICE SEARCHING FOR INFORMATION IN STOLEN PUPPY CASE

[AURORA, Ill. – February 17, 2020]: The Aurora Police Department is looking for information to assist in an on-going investigation into a stolen puppy from a store in Aurora.

On Wednesday, February 12th at approximately 7:55 p.m., Aurora Police officers were called to Furry Babies in the Fox Valley Mall for a report that a brown and white Shih Tzu had been stolen from its cage. The store told responding officers that the dog was approximately one-month old and valued at $3,400.

The store employees reported that the store was busy in the evening and they noticed the puppy was missing between 7:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. and then contacted police. The employees said the dog is not much bigger than the size of a hand and only weighs a few pounds.

Aurora Police detectives are currently investigating and anyone with information on their whereabouts is asked to call the Aurora Police Department Investigations Division at 630-256-5500.
