January 29, 2022 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APD STATEMENT ON INCIDENT AT WALDO MIDDLE SCHOOL

The Aurora Police Department has received reports of potentially inappropriate content being heard at the end of a virtual tutoring session for students at Waldo Middle School.

At this time, contrary to reports on social media, APD has not received any evidence that there was any inappropriate video displayed.

APD has been able to confirm that this incident revolved around a contracted company that provides tutoring sessions to District 131 students. The incident did not involve any District 131 employees.

APD Investigators are working with District 131 administration to look into the incident. If anyone has any video or additional evidence pertaining to the incident, please contact APD Investigations at 630-256-5500 or email tips@apd.aurora.il.us

Any further questions should be directed to District 131 administration.
