Scholarship Eligibility Criteria:

Who is eligible?

Applicant eligibility for the testing scholarship is determined by the same income guidelines, with the same limits based on household size, that are used by the U.S. Department of Agricultural for the federal free meals program.

The process:

1. Applicant submits waiver request form, including supporting documents via email or fax (ASAP). Documents required: last 13 weeks of income for applicant and spouse (if applicable).
2. Income added up and total does not exceed 185% of the Federal Poverty Line (FLP) are eligible for scholarship.
3. Processing can take up to 3 business days. Applicant will be notified via phone and email of approval. Applicant will be given a code to enter after registering on the NTN testing site.

Other income: If you have other forms of income, please provide canceled checks for outside financial aid, notarized letter from person giving monthly aid or documents which show the amount of the income received and the date it was received.

No Income: If you have no income, please provide a letter explaining how you provide food, clothing and housing for your household.

Federal definition of income:

Income is defined as any monies earned before any deductions such as income taxes, social security taxes, insurance premiums, charitable contributions and bonds. It includes the following: (1) monetary compensation for services including wages, salary, commissions or fees; (2) net income from non-farm self-employment; (3) net income from farm self-employment; (4) income from estates or trusts; (5) dividends or interest on savings or bonds or income from estates or trusts; (6) net rental income; (7) public assistance or welfare payments; (8) unemployment compensation; (9) government civilian employee or military retirement or pensions or veteran payments; (10) private pensions or annuities; (11) alimony or child support payments; (12) regular contributions from persons not living in the household; (13) net royalties; and (14) other case income. Other cash income would include cash amounts received or withdrawn from any source including savings, investments, trust, accounts and other resources which would be available to pay the price of the fee required for testing.
